ANNEX 1
DATA PROCESSING TERMS

In order to comply with Article 28 of the UK GDPR the terms below form part of the Terms and the legal relationship between the Supplier and Customers subscribing to the Service.

For the purposes of this Annex:

The terms ‘controller’, ‘data subject’, ‘personal data’, ‘processing’ and ‘processor’ have the meanings given to them in the UK GDPR, Data Protection Act 2018 and other applicable EU and national privacy legislation (Data Protection Legislation). The provisions of this Annex apply where the Customer is a ‘controller’ for the purposes of the UK GDPR.

‘Applicable law’ means English law or any applicable law (as the context requires).

References to ‘Articles’ are references to articles of the UK GDPR.

‘UK GDPR’ means Regulation (EU) 2016/679 of the European Parliament and of the Council of 27 April 2016 on the protection of natural persons with regard to the processing of personal data and on the free movement of such data (United Kingdom General Data Protection Regulation), as it forms part of the law of the UK.

1. General

1.1 The Supplier and the Customer will each comply with the Data Protection Legislation in relation to the processing of personal data which has been supplied by the Customer to the Supplier in connection with the Service (Supplied Personal Data).

1.2 The Supplier’s Privacy & Cookies Policy (as amended from time to time) sets out the subject-matter, nature, purpose and duration of the processing it undertakes, along with the types of personal data and categories of data subjects.

2. Instructions

2.1 The Supplier will only process Supplied Personal Data on the documented instructions of the Customer unless required to do so by applicable law (in which case, the Supplier will before processing give the Customer notice of the requirement, unless the Supplier is prohibited from doing so by applicable law).

2.2 The Supplier and the Customer will each take steps to ensure that any natural person acting under its authority does not process Supplied Personal Data except on the Customer’s documented instructions (unless he or she is required to do so by applicable law).

3. Confidentiality and security of processing

3.1 The Supplier will ensure persons authorised to process Supplied Personal Data are subject to obligations of confidentiality or are under an appropriate statutory obligation of confidentiality.

3.2 In ensuring compliance with Article 32:

3.2.1 the Supplier and the Customer will each implement appropriate technical and organisational measures to ensure a level of security in relation to the Supplied
Personal Data appropriate to the risk. Such measures will take into account (a) the state of the art and costs of implementation, (b) the nature, scope, context and purpose of the processing, and (c) the risk of varying likelihood and severity for the rights and freedoms of natural persons; and

3.2.2 in assessing the appropriate level of security, the Supplier will take into account the risks that are presented by processing the Supplied Personal Data including the risk of accidental or unlawful destruction, loss, alteration, unauthorised disclosure of, or access to, personal data transmitted, stored or otherwise processed (a Personal Data Breach).

3.3 Where the Supplier acts as processor in relation to Supplied Personal Data, it will notify the Customer without undue delay of any Personal Data Breach affecting the Supplied Personal Data.

4. Sub-processors and third country transfers

4.1 The Customer generally authorises the Supplier to engage further processors (Sub-Processors) to process Supplied Personal Data in connection with the provision of the Service.

4.2 The Customer generally authorises the Supplier to continue to use those Sub-Processors already engaged by the Supplier as at 25 May 2018, subject to the Supplier in each case as soon as practicable meeting the obligations set out in clause 4.4.

4.3 The Supplier will give prior notice to the Customer of the proposed addition of any Sub-Processors by placing a clear notice about them on the Website in advance of the change. If the Customer objects to the addition of one or more Sub-Processors, the Supplier may (at its sole discretion) (a) ensure that Supplied Personal Data is not processed by the new Sub-Processor(s), (b) select one or more alternative Sub-Processors acceptable to the Customer, or (c) cease providing the Service to the Customer.

4.4 Prior to any Sub-Processor processing Supplied Personal Data (or otherwise in accordance with clause 4.2), the Supplier will ensure that the arrangement between the Supplier and the Sub-Processor is governed by a written contract pursuant to which:

4.4.1 the Sub-Processor is subject to obligations equivalent to those set out in this Annex and which otherwise provide sufficient guarantees to implement appropriate technical and organisation measures in such a manner that the processing will meet the requirements of the UK GDPR; and

4.4.2 if the Sub-Processor fails to fulfil its data protection obligations, the Supplier remains fully liable to the Customer for the performance of the Sub-Processor's obligations.

4.5 The Supplier may transfer Supplied Personal Data outside the UK as permitted by Articles 44 to 49.

5. Information and assistance

5.1 Subject to clause 5.2, the Supplier will assist the Customer:
5.1.1 by appropriate technical and organisational measures (insofar as possible) to respond to requests in exercise of a data subject's rights set out in Articles 12 to 23 (as relevant);

5.1.2 following a written request by the Customer, in ensuring compliance with the Customer's obligations relation to the security of processing (Article 32), the notification of personal data breaches (Articles 33 and 34), data protection impact assessments (Article 35) and prior consultation (Article 36), in each case taking into account the nature of the processing of Supplied Personal Data and the information available to the Supplier;

5.1.3 following a written request by the Customer, by making available to the Customer all information necessary to demonstrate compliance with the obligations set out in this Annex in relation to the Supplier's processing of Supplied Personal Data, including allowing for and contributing to audits and inspections conducted by the Customer or a third party auditor.

5.2 The Supplier will provide assistance pursuant to clause 5.1 subject to both parties acting in good faith to agree the scope, method, timing and reasonable fees chargeable by the Supplier for such assistance and on the basis that the parties will work in good faith to minimise the disruption to the Supplier's business.

5.3 Subject to clause 5.4, the Supplier will as soon as reasonably practicable delete all Supplied Personal Data (including copies) following the cessation of the provision of the Service unless applicable law requires storage of the Supplied Personal Data. This provision will not apply to any personal data in relation to which the Supplier is the controller.

5.4 The Customer may by written notice to the Supplier require that the Supplier return a complete copy of all Supplied Personal Data to the Customer, following which the Supplier will delete all other copies of such Supplied Personal Data.

6. Supply of Personal Data

6.1 The Customer confirms that any Supplied Personal Data provided to the Supplier has been collected and disclosed in accordance with the Data Protection Legislation, and that the Customer and its directors, employees and consultants will only provide the Supplier with Personal Data reasonably necessary for the purpose of providing the Service to the Customer.

6.2 In respect of any Supplied Personal Data, the Customer shall inform each relevant data subject that the Supplier will process his or her personal data in accordance with the Privacy & Cookies Policy and that his or her use of the Service is subject thereto.

7. General

Nothing in these Data Processing Terms will relieve the Supplier of its own direct obligations and liabilities under the UK GDPR, whether as a processor or controller.
